HARRIMAN TURNS DOWN BID FOR CONDON PAPERS

Commerce Department Wants Issue Settled by Loyalty Review Board

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—The Commerce department refused tonight to turn over its loyalty check papers on Dr. Edward U. Condon and the House Un-American Activities committee announced plans for a public "showdown."

Dr. Condon is the head of the National Bureau of Standards. He had been described by an Un-American Activities subcommittee Monday as an official who "knowingly or unknowingly" mingled with alleged Russian spies.

Secretary of Commerce Harriman wrote the House group tonight that he would not accede to its demand for the files of a department board which cleared Dr. Condon in a loyalty check.

Harriman did say that in view of the public interest in the matter "I believe that it would be desirable to have the case reviewed by the loyalty review board of the Civil Service Commission."

HE SAID HE intends to ask for such a review and to send the board the "relevant papers."

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) said the House committee "now will hold public hearings on this case."

He said that "I am resolved to have a showdown."

"Secretary Harriman," he said, "hasn't got the courage to produce these records at this time. But he will produce them before we are through."

HARRIMAN TOLD the committee he "concurred" in the finding of his department's three-man loyalty board Feb. 24 that "no reasonable grounds exist for believing that Dr. Condon is disloyal to the government of the United States."

Harriman's letter said that to release the demanded file would "gravely prejudice the very objectives which your own committee has been pursuing in protecting the United States against subversive elements."

He said the file "includes confidential reports and documents" received from other government agencies. He said it includes names of persons who have furnished information "on the assurance that their action in so doing would not be disclosed."

"IT A PRECEDENT were to be set by releasing such a file it would be difficult, if not impossible, to assure persons from whom information is obtained in future cases that they can rely upon the government to protect the confidential nature or source of the information, the letter continued.

"As a consequence, many persons would be reluctant to give information, the discovery of disloyal employees would be made more difficult, and the effectiveness of the government's loyalty program seriously jeopardized."

Rep. Thomas is in New Jersey, recovering from a stomach ailment. His statement was issued through the committee here.

"The refusal of the Commerce department to turn over the records in the Condon case," Thomas said, "is a definite proof that there is something they don't want the Congress and the people to see. What have they to hide?"

Mississippi Boat Upsets; 20 Lost

GREENVILLE, Miss., March 4 (AP)—The Mississippi river towboat Natchez was reported overturned tonight after striking a bridge below here, with possible loss of 20 lives.

Lee Turner, superintendent of the river terminal here, said he had been notified of the accident in a telephone call from Peter Fanchi, chief dispatcher for the federal barge lines at St. Louis, Mo.

Turner said Fanchi told him the Natchez, a Federal Barge line boat, had struck a pier of the bridge over the Mississippi river, and "apparently overturned."

The superintendent quoted Fanchi as saying nine persons had been rescued, but there were indications 20 were lost.

Getting Ready to 'Fight Guerillas'

At his home yesterday Rudy Martin, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Martin, 926 Queen street, shows his mother two of the toy guns he'll take on his trip with her to Greece, which begins March 26. "I'm going to fight guerillas," Rudy has declared, though he will find their goal — the romantic Greek island of Metelene — remarkably free of shot or shell.

Six Pottstonians Plan Visit to Greece Soon

By FRED SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Six Queen street residents were busy as bees yesterday. They were packing a host of articles, including four toy guns, for a trip to Greece that will begin later this month. How long the trip will last or how many actually will be on it were still moot points last night.

But Mrs. Peter F. Martin, 926 Queen street, and her seven-year-old son, Rudy, definitely were going. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Alex, 808 Queen street, and their two young sons, Michael and Alexander, hoped to be with them when the Nea Helles sails from New York March 26. But the weren't sure.

The Alexs had made down payment on their ship reservations, had taken their "shots" and arranged their affairs. But after a two-week wait they still hadn't received their passports.

MRS. MARTIN WASN'T sure how long she would stay in Greece.

Reading Man Hit by Car Succumbs in Hospital

READING, March 4 (P)—John N. Summers, 65, died today in the Community General hospital of a fractured skull suffered when struck by a car in front of City hall.

Police Sergeant John Ross identified the driver of the car as Leon Klevansky, operator of a food store here.

Klevansky told police he was making a left turn when he felt a thud on his left front fender. Summers was pinned beneath the left rear wheel of the car, police said.

The "dancer from New Orleans," real name Stacie Lawrence, emerged from a knee-deep water clad only in a bra and black and white striped panties to comment "boys will be boys."

Miss Lawrence had brought her night club band up from New Orleans to the campus of Louisiana State university to give students a show.

WHILE THE BAND played she let down her hair, took off her glasses, discarded a blouse and skirt. That was far as she got.

A group of muscular young men charged out of the group and carried her off to the lake where she was dunked.

Eventually Miss Lawrence took refuge in a campus police station. A police car pulled up to complete the rescue and Miss Lawrence was escorted out by a group of husky football players.

A Life magazine photographer who students thought was a member of the dancer's party was mobbed in the melee and his equipment taken from him.

The band's piano was pulled from the truck and smashed. Students took pieces of it for souvenirs. The truck was last seen being pushed around the campus by a group of gleeful, singing youths. One wheel later was found on the second tier of the football stadium.

The last issue of "Pell Mell," campus publication was barred by the school because it featured Miss Lawrence and her New Orleans night club performance.

SLOT MACHINES 'VANISH' FROM CLUBS IN COUNTY

Retail Liquor Dealers
Ask End to Gambling;
Forrest Critical of Methods

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, March 4—The "clang of slot machines in Montgomery county's private clubs and lodge halls had all but died out last night.

Long shelves and tables on which the machines had stood were cleared during the day when word spread rapidly throughout the county that the "heat" was on.

The rush to move out the gambling devices coincided with these developments:

1. W. H. Rosenberry, attorney for the Retail Liquor Dealers' association of Montgomery county, sent a two-page open letter to the district attorney, attacking private clubs and fraternal organizations as unfair competitors and asking the district attorney to "exterminate the mechanical gambling device."

2. A reply from District Attorney E. Arnold Forrest, criticizing the association's open letter method and some of Rosenberry's charges, but repeating in blunt terms his intention to end gambling in the county.

W. H. Rosenberry, attorney for the liquor dealers, charged in the two page letter that fraternal groups and clubs "openly and notoriously operate the common mechanical gambling device known as the 'slot machine' or 'one-armed bandit'."

ACCUOSING SUCH CLUBS of being in unfair competition with his clients, Rosenberry cited what he termed "the simplicity with which three or four thousand members are obtained, the sale of alcoholic beverages for less than cost, the giving of free food and cash door prizes."

Rosenberry said such methods have enabled the private groups to build up surpluses as great as $500,000. Without naming the Orioles Home association in Pottstown, he mentioned that "an organization in Montgomery county announced it purchased a property for $85,000 and further that they would have no difficulty whatsoever in financing the purchase and renovations inasmuch as they had a cash balance of $400,000."

Clubs and fraternal groups having slot machines, Rosenberry also charged, are members of a federation "for which a warning system is maintained." Each club in the federation, he said, is told when to remove the machines and when it is "safe" to replace them.

The attorney said, "in the event there is a grand jury investigation, we will gladly co-operate with you and turn over to you such information which we have accumulated."

IN HIS REPLY TO the open letter last night, Forrest criticized the method by which the association presented its charges. If evidence of such gambling "existed" (Continued on Page Eleven)

Two months, maybe. Or six months, she said. It would depend on how things were in her native land.

Her young son had more definite ideas.

"If I like it, I'm going to stay there forever," 7-year-old Rudy has announced. He has heard a good deal about Greece, and is especially intrigued by the talk of warfare there.

"He wants to fight guerillas," his sister, Christine, explained.

His mother said he was insisting that his four toy guns be packed. And his teachers were amazed because he was willing to do the extra (Continued on Page Eleven)

Finland Reported Ready to Discuss Mutual Aid Pact With Soviet Union

HELSINKI, Finland, March 4 (AP)—Finland appeared ready tonight to begin talks with Russia in answer to Prime Minister Stalin's request for a friendship and mutual assistance pact.

The stand of most Finnish political parties, however, indicated defining a clear basis for negotiations leading to a possible pact.

THE QUESTION whether Finland should move a step closer to Russia's eastern bloc rested with President Juho Paasikivi. As soon as the Social Democrats conveyed their views to Paasikivi, he called a meeting of his closest advisors.

There was no announcement as to the results of the meeting.

A Social Democratic statement said the party believed Finland hardly could refuse to open negotiations.

The Swedish Peoples party, powerful in influencing foreign affairs, advised the president to negotiate with Russia. The party has 15 seats and a balance of power position in the 200-seat Finnish parliament.

The Communist-dominated popular front bloc, with 51 parliamentary seats, favors signing a treaty at once.

THE OTHER parliamentary groups — Conservatives, Liberals and Agrarians — announced they would make known their attitudes tomorrow.

Paasikivi must make the final decision. Before doing so he has been consulting parliament, various party executive boards and government advisors. Parliament must ratify any agreement.

Korean Woman Doctor Named To Staff of Pottstown Hospital

"An excellent doctor — well-trained — a fine background of experience."

With these words, A. C. Seawell, administrator of the Pottstown hospital, yesterday announced the appointment of Dr. Rosalie J. Ging as a new resident physician at the hospital.

Born in Detroit, Mich., of Korean parents, Dr. Ging received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan and her doctorate of medicine from the university's medical school.

She traveled to Boston, Mass., following her graduation in 1945, to intern at the New England Hospital for Women and Children and then to Paterson, N. J., to complete her residency at St. Joseph's hospital.

DR. GING IS NOT the only doctor in her family. Her husband, Nelson Ging, has the degree of doctor of philosophy in chemistry. He is employed as a chemist in the plastics laboratory of the Finestone Tire and Rubber company plant.

A native of Foochow, China, he met his wife while taking graduate work at the University of Michigan. They have an eight-months-old daughter, Constance.

Like many Pottstown couples, the Gings were faced with a housing problem. While Dr. Ging served her residency in Paterson, her husband was working here. Finally, about five months ago, they found a house in Sanatoga and were able to be together again.

Now serving a general mixed residency, Dr. Ging will go to Montgomery County hospital for three months further study and then return to her post in Pottstown.

YESTERDAY, HER stethoscope tucked into a pocket of her jacket, Dr. Ging took a few moments from her work to discuss world problems.

Alert and inquiring, her interests ranged from the problems of the South to the third party, American foreign policy, governmental control of public utilities, and the chances of the Marshall plan to curb Communism.

Speaking of her interest in world affairs she said smilingly: "Perhaps it is the Oriental mind. We tend to project our thoughts outward, rather than inward."

Dr. Ging is replacing Dr. R. A. Boykiw, a former resident physician, who has left the hospital to take a post in Indiana. An outstanding student and physician, she was one of the highest grades on the examination of the National Board of Medical Examiners.

$7667 BID LOW FOR HALL ANNEX

Pottstown Builder Given
Contract for Addition to Borough Office Building

The bid of B. Frank Hutt Jr., of 1117 High street, to build an annex to borough hall, was accepted by the property committee of council last night.

His bid was for $7667.

Two other bids were received.

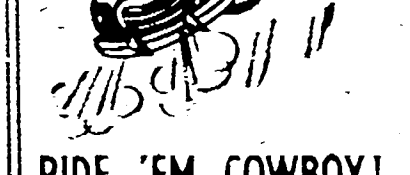

One was from Welch and Renninger, of Sanatoga, for $7738.00. The other came from Nicola J. Dinnocenti, of Kopersford, for $8046.27.

A top price of $8000 was set in the budget for 1948, adopted by the February session of council.

NO DATE FOR start of work was settled, but committee members agreed that the job should take approximately two months as soon as materials and labor were ready.

The annex, to be placed behind the northwest corner of the building, nearest the police radio room, will be constructed of buff colored brick to match the present structure.

It will consist of one story, containing two rooms, and a (Continued on Page Ten)

Dewey Blast at Truman Cites 'Ruinous Inflation'

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey denounced the Truman administration today as a foolish spend-thrift threatening to bring on "ruinous inflation."

The New Yorker flung his charges from Albany in a message of thanks to Wisconsin friends who are backing him for the Republican presidential nomination.

Another politician who wants a new President, Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) kept the drums rolling for Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

"I am certain he will accept the (Republican) nomination if it is tendered to him at Philadelphia," Miller said in a speech to the U. S. House.

MEANWHILE the Southern civil rights quarrel with President Truman simmered on within the Democratic party. Also, Pennsylvania supporters of Henry A. Wallace's third party bid arranged a meeting at York, on Sunday, Wallace will speak.

Girl's Bicycle Stolen From Bethany Center

The first girl's bicycle to be stolen since the borough's licensing ordinance went into effect vanished last night from Bethany center between 7 and 9 o'clock, it was reported to police last night.

The owner was listed as Wendel Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Butler, 710 Minister street. It is a girl's bicycle, because it was reported, a girl's bike can be ridden by a boy, while vice versa is not true, and Wendel is one of 14 children in the family.

The bike's license number is 967.

Boy Pals Sign Up for Camp As Their First Big Outing

Two nine-year-old boys, the first to register for the Spicer Employees' Aid camp at Earlville, will share their first adventure together this Summer.

The two boys, John Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Johnson, 46 East Second street, and David Ingram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Ingram, 27 East Second street, have been raised almost as brothers.

Their applications for a two-week stay were received by the camp committee of the association yesterday.

Only a day apart in celebrating their birthday anniversaries, the boys were raised together because their parents all work. They both have attended the same schools and both are in the same grade.

THEIR TWO-WEEK adventure at camp will be the first time they have been away from home. Arrangements for their attendance at the camp were made by their (Continued on Page Ten)

FIXTURE CENSUS IS EXPECTED TO BOOST REVENUE

Service Charge Revisions
Predicted as Result of
Check on Installations

Thousands of dollars in revenue should be realized after a complete water fixture census, to be made within two weeks under borough auspices.

The purpose of the survey, according to Borough Manager Dow I. Sears, will be to obtain an accurate check on every type of water fixture in the 6500 living units in Pottstown, Stowe and Kenilworth.

He explained that the water company here operates under the "flat rate system," by which a set charge is made on each type of outlet, such as sink, washbasin, shower and toilet.

"Every place operating under the flat rate basis should have a survey every four or five years," he pointed out.

THE REASON FOR the regular checks is to keep tabs on additional fixtures installed by householders. In order for the borough to realize all possible revenue from its water service.

Neither Sears nor C. Roy Bush, president of Borough council, could estimate the amount of money lost because of non-reporting of additional water outlets, but Bush thought it would prove "considerable," with possibly a thousand or more dollars added to the water company as a result of a complete check of water facilities.

In Sears' opinion, most of the failures to report new fixtures comes from ordinary forgetfulness rather than deliberate attempts to defraud the water company.

At first, the job will be done by four men, headed by Frank K. Krause, of 405 North Franklin street. After the first month it will be decided whether more men are needed for the house-to-house canvass, which Sears estimated would require several months to complete.

THE BOROUGH MANAGER said that he had a list of names from which he would choose the workers, but had not decided upon them yet. Questionnaires have been printed, listing each possible type of water fixture. The surveyors will take these with them to the houses and apartments and fill them out on the spot.

At present, the only penalties levied by the company are the shutting off of water for non-payment of bills, or a five dollar fine for use of a "water thief," (Continued on Page Ten)

Temperature Dips To 10 and Record After Snow, Rain

The temperature, which has held steady as a rock recently through snow, rain or sunlight, cracked under the strain late yesterday, plunging 25 degrees in 10 hours, and by early this morning setting a new record.

The coldest March 5 on record was in 1905 when the temperature was 12 degrees. Early this morning it was 10, and still falling, while a bitter March wind made it seem even worse.

And it wasn't expected to warm up much today, despite the fair skies predicted.

MEANWHILE, the unpleasant mixture of snow and rain that has kept this a wet March, continued yesterday with snow flurries that fell until noon.

Democrat Employees Told to Place Jobs Ahead of Politics

HARRISBURG, March 4 (P) — Some 500 Democratic employees of the auditor general's department were told today the duties of their jobs come ahead of political careers in the 1948 state-wide primary campaign.

Auditor General G. Harold Wagner issued the order to department heads. It came a day after top Democratic leaders stated State Sen. William J. Lane of Washington county for State treasurer. Wagner was backing Frank A. Boylan, of Carbondale, his executive assistant for the place.

"General Wagner wants his department to get up to date on audit reports," explained James McFadden, deputy auditor general, in commenting on the order. "He wants to bring everything current by July 1."

McFadden added that he did not expect the order to interfere with activity in local legislative campaigns.

Speculation immediately arose about the effect of the order on the status of J. Warren Mickle, State Democratic chairman. Mickle is a special accountant under Wagner at $6000 a year. Both he and Wagner were out-of-the-city.

Meanwhile, the auditor general's department announced the promotion of Jackson E. Scarl, of Allentown, to head of the division of institutional audits in the department. Scarl also is secretary of the Democratic State committee.

SCARL SAID he expects to decide next week whether he will continue in his State committee post in light of his new duties.

Boylan also has postponed until Monday announcement of his decision on entering the primary campaign as an independent candidate for State treasurer.

Petitions to place his name on the ballot have been circulated in 58 counties and are ready to be filed at the State elections bureau if he decides to run against Senator Lane, the choice of Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh and other leaders.

Lane and State Treasurer Ramsey S. Black, of Harrisburg, organization choice for auditor general,

Minimum of Lay-Offs Planned by Ford Firm

DETROIT, March 4 (P) — The Ford Motor company announced today it has worked out plans to make a minimum of worker lay-offs necessary to its forthcoming change over to 1949 model cars.

"Fewer employees will be affected and for shorter periods than for any other major change-over in the company's history."

Lay-offs at the Rouge (parent plant in Dearborn) will affect between 20,000 and 25,000 workers. Many of these will be for not more than two weeks and few will be for more than six weeks.

Whose Job?

ONE of these days someone's going to be killed at the Pennsylvania railroad grade crossing on Moser road, south of Sembling avenue.

Then many local residents will remark with astonishment: "Was, I never knew there was a railroad crossing there?"

The area person, whose horribly mangled body will be scooped up into a basket, because those railroad engines travel rather briskly, may not have known there was a crossing there, either.

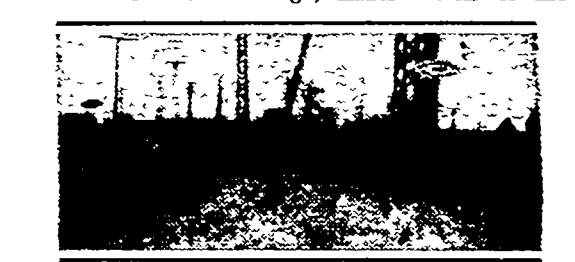

But hundreds of motorists do. They're workers at Preststone or nearby plants. They're residents of Hilldale Homes and other suburban developments.

It's a wonder some of those motorists aren't dead now. BECAUSE THAT GRADE CROSSING IS UNPROTECTED except by warning signs. No watchmen. No bells.

And it's almost hidden because of a mean curve in Moser road, and because pipes are being piled along the roadway to further obscure it.

Travel south on Moser road and you'll be on top of those railroad tracks before you can whisper "Acadabra."

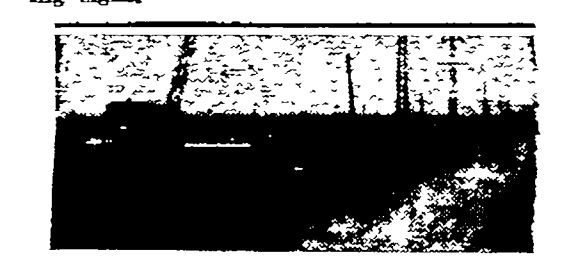

You'll cross a bridge, under which lie the

Looking north . . . X marks tracks

Reading company tracks. Then you'll make a 90-degree right turn into a short stretch that leads into a sweeping curve. Round the bend you go AND RIGHT ONTO THE TRACKS. No time to catch your breath. Just "Swoosh!" and you're a dead duck if a fast freight or passenger train is steaming up the valley.

The approach to the crossing from the South is not too bad. There's a straight stretch. If you're alert, you'll notice the warning signs.

Less danger from this side

But there are no flasher lights. There are no sound effects to warn motorists or pedestrians of trains' approach.

Now whose job is it in Pottstown to protect the life and limb and property of the citizens? Could it be that the police department is delegated to perform those duties? Is it the police job to safeguard motorists unaware of dangers lurking beyond curves?

Shouldn't this condition be investigated by Pottstown borough council and the dangerous grade crossing eliminated?

Stores and Ideologies

IT ISN'T often commented upon, but retail stores here and in the Soviet Union are an excellent example of essential differences between free enterprise and government enterprise.

In Russia, for instance, there are various "classes" of stores. A few modern shops carry good stocks and so on for attractive displays and high standards of service. But these stores, under present policy in the workers' paradise, are open to only a relatively few top level people.

The stores which the masses of the people can patronize are dreary and dirty, and carry only the barest of necessities and few of those. The worker has to deal in the black market to keep alive. There isn't, of course, any competition between stores—the state owns and runs them all, and the customer is always wrong.

By comparison, America has the finest retail system in the world. Every store is in direct competition with many others. Chains and independents, department stores and super-markets, specialty shops and mail-order houses, are all out for the business.

The average Russian just wouldn't believe the truth about American retailing—just as, living in his totalitarian darkness, he wouldn't believe what free enterprise achieves for all the people.

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where General Dwight Eisenhower has had his picture taken wearing his new civilian hat. His friends think he looks fine in it. But it would look even finer to them in the presidential campaign ring.

In Shanghai today, an item says, an ordinary restaurant meal costs $250,000 in Chinese money. And, of course, there's the additional 10 percent as a tip to the waiter!

And say: Who said the "man with the hoe" never could be organized? In Cuba the gambling casino croppers have formed a union.

Scientific 'Shipwreck' Test

A group of enlisted men are shown as they began a six-week diet on biscuits and water to aid the U. S. Army in developing a survival ration for military and civilian use. Conducted under the supervision of a number of New York physicians, the test is being held in Metropolitan hospital. During the six-week period, the men will live under conditions that simulate the lot of a shipwrecked crew.

Gandhi's Aides Spread Throughout India To Carry Out Slain Leader's Program

NEW DELHI, March 4 (P)—Members of Mahatma Gandhi's personal staff are preparing to carry on the message of the "apostle of non-violence" in new posts throughout India.

Secretary Payarilal is going to Noakhali in eastern Pakistan, scene of bloody riots in September 1946, to continue the Mahatma's work of bringing about "real heart amity" between Hindu and Moslem communities.

Assisting him in this task will be Abha Gandhi, a granddaughter of the Mahatma, whose husband, Kanu, has been working in Noakhali continuously ever since Gandhi left there for Bihar.

SUSHILA NAYYAR, the woman physician whom Gandhi had sent on a mission to the Moslem state of Bahawalpur before his assassination, has put off her plans to do medical research in the United States. Instead she will tour riot-plagued parts of India and Pakistan in quest of women abducted in the communal fighting and disorders. She is a younger sister of Secretary Payarilal.

Mannu Gandhi, another of the Mahatma's young women relatives who were his inseparable companions during his last years and served as his "walking sticks," has gone on a long-delayed visit to her father, the Mahatma's nephew, in Rajkot. This is the princely state where the Mahatma's father was prime minister for many years.

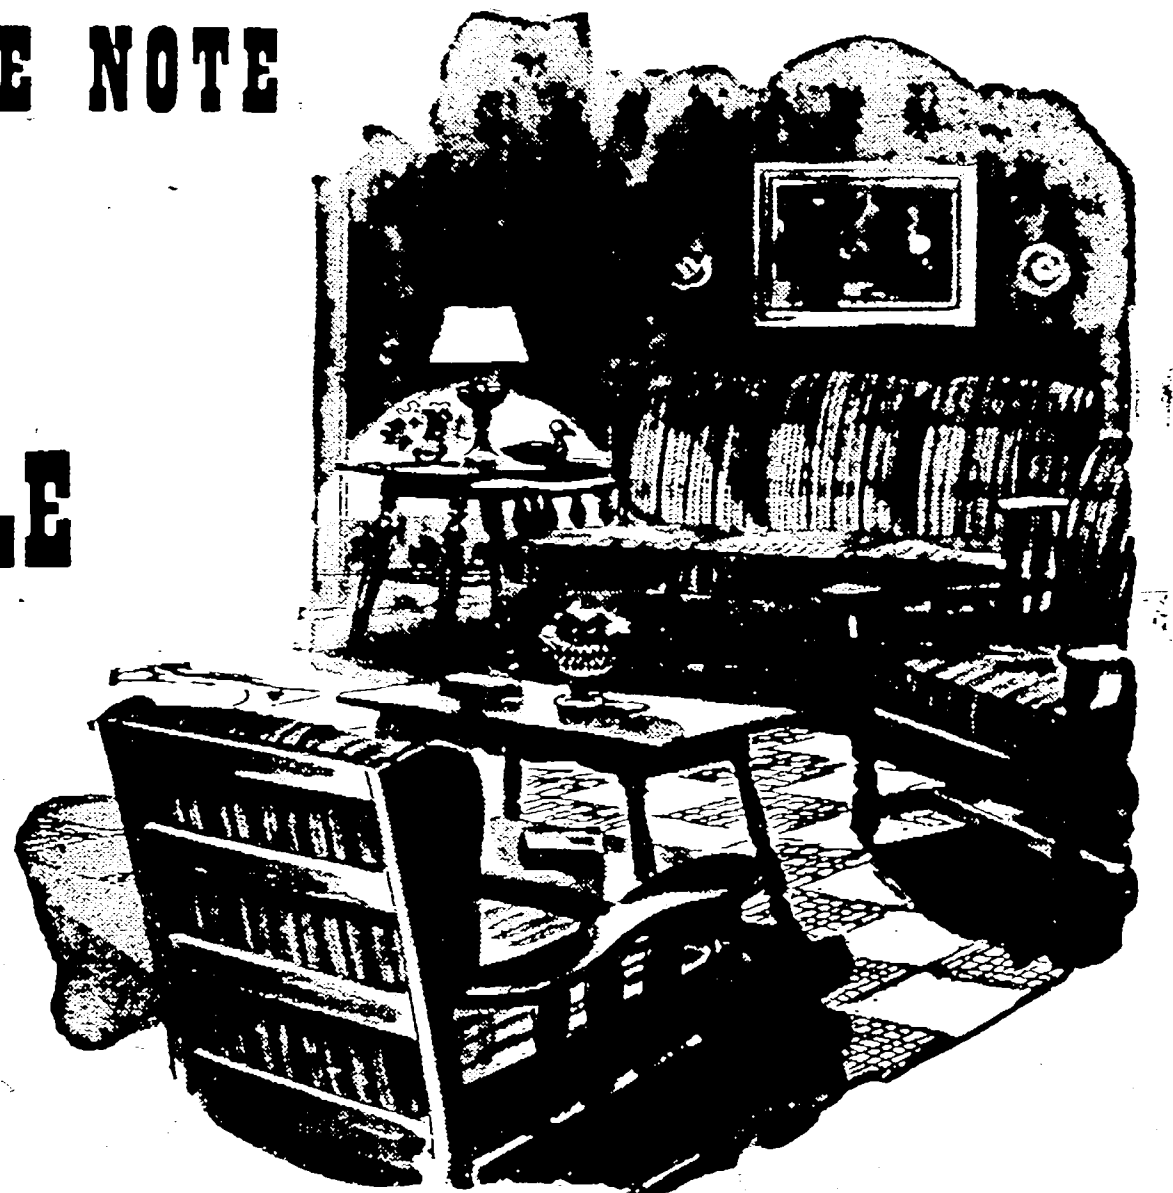

A "constructive workers' conference" has been called to meet at Shewasgram in Wardha (Central India) in mid-March to "devise measures" for the perpetuation of Gandhi's name and the continuation of his unfulfilled mission. It will be attended by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, Deputy Premier Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Education Minister Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, Congress President Dr. Rajendra Prasad among many others of Gandhi's close personal friends and co-workers.

MEANWHILE the congress working committee has called for collection of a huge fund to further Gandhi's ideals and to continue his activities. One project is the task of collecting, preserving and publishing his writings and teachings in India's hundreds of languages.

The committee has asked all provincial and district committees to aid in the collection of a central fund rather than dissipating their energies and funds in separate collections for local memorials.

President Prasad appealed to all people in India to contribute at least ten days' pay to this central fund.

50-Year Defense Pact Seen For Five Nations

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 4 (P)—Diplomatic circles said tonight a pact being drafted here probably will unite Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg in a mutual defense agreement for at least 50 years.

The five nations commenced talks during the day on a suggested western European union to stem Communist expansion. Conference sources expressed confidence a general agreement would be reached not later than Sunday.

The agreement, it was said, would deal with military, political and economic issues. Details of the economic questions will be taken care of later by multilateral agreements between the powers. The economic details are proving the most difficult to solve.

CHILE SIGNS PACT

SANTIAGO, Chile, March 4 (P)—Chile and Argentina signed today an agreement for joint political and legal action in defense of their rights in South America and the Antarctic. Both nations dispute British claims to land in the area.

Barrel Plant Razed By Philadelphia Fire

PHILADELPHIA, March 4 (P)—A southwest Philadelphia barrel plant was destroyed by fire today after a series of explosions.

No one was injured although about 25 employees were in the one-story building when the blaze started.

The firm, McLaughlin brothers, buys and reconditions oil and chemical metal drums. Several thousand such drums were reported stored in the building.

Three-quarters of the U. S. population between five and 19 years old was attending school in 1940 compared with about half in 1890.

Gold Coast Colony Asks British for Full Independence

LONDON, March 4 (P)—Two West African groups demanded today that Britain's Gold coast colony be granted immediate self government. During the past few days the colony has been swept by riots in which 25 persons were reported killed.

A joint statement issued to a news conference by the West African Student's union and the West African National secretariat contained the demand for self government. The secretariat is made up of West African nationals in London.

Referring to the disorders which began the past Saturday the statement accused police of firing on "unarmed and defenseless men."

"IN VIEW of these circumstances," the statement continued, "the people of the Gold coast rightly demand immediate self government, convening of a constituent assembly to formulate plans for effecting transfer of power and the recall of the governor."

The British sloop Actaon and Neride are steaming toward Accra, the Gold coast capital, from Simonstown, South Africa. The colonial office said quiet has been restored in the colony after the disorders spread from Accra to several other towns.

A BRITISH government statement in the house of commons Monday attributed the rioting to Communist incitement.

This charge was entirely false and completely misleading," said K. A. H. Jones Quarrey, editor of the West African Student's union magazine.

According to the colonial office, the disorders were touched off when the ex-servicemen's union, a minority group of veterans, left a prescribed route of march in Accra and converged on the residence of the governor, Sir Gerald Creasy, to present a petition. The nature of the petition has not been disclosed. Shots were fired, the colonial office said, after police attempted to divert or stop the rioters.

Third Party Movement Opposed by Stassen

HANOVER, N. H., March 4 (P)—Harold E. Stassen said today he did not approve of Henry Wallace's third party, even though it would tend to split the Democrats.

The Republican presidential aspirant made his comment at a forum on the Dartmouth college campus, where more than 2000 students gave him an enthusiastic reception.

Laughter broke out when one student asked him "do you approve of Wallace's third party even though it would tend to split the Democrats?"

Solemnly, Stassen replied, "No. The best interest of the country can be served by a two party system."

The 41-year-old former governor of Minnesota said that splinter parties had brought the downfall of France and the Weimar republic in Germany after the first World War.

Such a system, he said, "makes it impossible for people to reach a decision."

Canada Places Ban On Alien Communists

OTTAWA, March 4 (P)—Canada has ordered its border police to stop any alien Communists who seek entry into the country, a government informant said today.

The instructions were issued as a result of a cabinet decision to move against Communists from other countries. The decision was said to be aimed particularly at Communists who are known to have been entering Canada from the United States in recent years as labor union officials.

Canada has been studying the problems of Communists and others in regards as undesirable for some time, it was said. Government legal experts have now advised that action can be taken under existing laws.

In 1940, almost half of all U. S. schools were one-room institutions.

Personalities in the News

MORRIS SHENKER, St. Louis attorney, was defending a 47-year-old salesman on a charge of soliciting another to commit murder. In his address to the court, Shenker blurted: "At one time or another, 99 percent of all married men have wished their wives were dead."

Shenker is a married man himself. It may be hard to convince the little woman that he is in that select one percent group.

CIVIL SERVICE Commissioner Harry B. Mitchell has advised Federal employees to put some curb in courtesy.

Among the things he counseled was "Try to eliminate the telephone marathon which consists of being transferred from one person who doesn't know to another who doesn't know and sounds as though he did not care and so on to a third and fourth."

The commissioner has a point. Some folks attempt to solve mysteries as a test—others try and contact a Federal official by telephone. Mystery solving seems a little easier.

PARMER ELMER GREENE, Montrose, bought a special secret medicine for his sick horse.

During the course of the day, he decided to sample the brew and consumed almost the entire bottle.

He didn't die, but he was fined $9.13 by a justice of the peace on a charge of "wilful and cruel neglect" of the horse.

Giddap, Donum! Let's be off to secure some alcoholic beverages (For medicinal purposes, of course).

B. CARROLL REECE, chairman of the Republican National committee, spent two and a half hours with the Pennsylvania Republican delegation recently and when a spokesman finally reported on the session, he asserted: "Believe it or not, we talked politics."

Quite an unusual development!

HAROLD TINSLEY, nine-year-old Indiana youngster, listened carefully as the Salvation Army adjutant pleaded for self-denial in Lent.

The next day, the adjutant received a package and a note which read: "Four per boys and girls in form lands."

The package contained 561 sticks of bubble gum that the tot had hoarded for several months.

Enough said.

RUSSIA'S PREMIER Stalin views the third party movement in the United States as "Operation Suckers," says James F. O'Neil, American Legion national commander.

WHAT A PRESIDENTIAL candidate says to a vice-presidential candidate's meeting for the first time. Henry Wallace to Glen Taylor: "What do you know? We're both the same neagt." True, both six-100'ers.

FLORENCE KIRK, Philadelphia soprano, went to New York to the Metropolitan opera to hear a performance of Verdi's "Aida" and for three acts was just a member of the audience.

Danza Hirsch, Yugoslav soprano, was forced to leave the cast at the close of the third act because of illness and Miss Kirk was called from the audience to sing the title role in the fourth act.

Wonder if she got a refund on her ticket?

War Surplus Plants Progress in State

CLEVELAND, March 4 (AP)—Persons who predicted that government-built war plants would gather cobwebs should look at what's happening in Pennsylvania, the War Assets Administration's regional office said today.

The manner in which surplus plants are contributing to the industrial efficiency of the Keystone State is typical of the entire country, the WAA added.

In western Pennsylvania, for example, the WAA said most of the plants it has sold in the past year "are in full scale operation and others are being revamped for a resumption of activity this Spring or Summer."

Of the unsold plants, the government agency said the majority are being leased to their wartime operators "or, like the Aluminum Company America group at Canonsburg, to a small number of small manufacturers on a multiple-tenancy basis."

Seven companies are busy at the Alcoa group turning out such products as lacquered cans, electric transformers and aluminum window sashes.

State Official Named To Tax Revision Board

PHILADELPHIA, March 4 (AP)—David W. Harris, chairman of the Republican committee here and State secretary of revenue, today was appointed to Philadelphia's board of revision of taxes.

Harris said he would resign his post in Governor James H. Duff's cabinet.

The new post pays $10,000 annually, a reduction of $2000 from his present salary.

Navy Sends Battleship to Watery Grave

The Navy announced yesterday that the battleship Pennsylvania (above) has been scuttled after 32 years of service. The ship is credited with firing more steel at the enemy than any other warship in history. It also survived both Bikini atom bomb tests.

Battleship Pennsylvania Sent to Bottom After Glorious 32 Year Period in Navy

PEARL HARBOR, March 4 (P)—The battleship Pennsylvania, which fired more steel at the enemy than any other warship in history and survived both Bikini atom bomb tests, was scuttled near Kwajalein Feb. 10.

The Navy said today the Pennsylvania was a belated victim of an aerial torpedo which hit her Aug. 12, 1945, two days before the war ended.

Radioactivity absorbed at Bikini also figured in the decision to scuttle the veteran of Pearl Harbor and of 15 offensives against the Japanese. The Navy said scrapping would have required decontamination which would cost more than it was worth.

At the same time, the Navy disclosed that the destroyer Trippe and attack transport Banner, also Bikini guinea pigs, were scuttled Feb. 3 and Feb. 16 because of "progressive deterioration."

ALL THREE were towed to Kwajalein lagoon after the Bikini tests of 1946. It was feared that they, like the former German cruiser Prinz Eugen, might sink there before long.

Last rites were informal for the 33,100-ton Pennsylvania after 32 years of hard service.

The ship that once was home to 130 officers and 2,200 enlisted men had a crew of 16 aboard as she was towed to sea. They opened the

Four Men Nabbed In Kidnaping Plot

TRENTON, N. J., March 4 (P)—The 18-year-old son of a Philadelphia refrigerator manufacturer was arrested today after, police said, failure of a bizarre four-man plot to kidnap his father's bookkeeper.

Detective Sgt. James A. George identified the youth as Joseph A. Martocello, Jr.

George said the boy had hired three Chattanooga men to aid him in an attempt to get for his mother a power of attorney Martocello Senior had given the bookkeeper.

George quoted one of the three men picked up with Martocello at a railroad station as saying they had been hired for $80 a week as "bodyguards."

He said the man, Leland Green, 22, told police he had tipped off the elder Martocello and the bookkeeper, Miss Marie Sacculo, about the plan. George quoted Green as saying "I don't want to get mixed up in no murder."

YOUNG MARCOCELLO, Green, and the others, Fred Wilkey, 24, and Edwin Lee Leatherwood, 22, attempted to kidnap Miss Sacculo from her South Philadelphia home last night, George said.

They were ambushed by several of her waiting relatives, however, and fled, firing from the back of their getaway car to scare off any pursuers, George said.

The automobile apparently became mired in nearby Langhorne, Pa. Trenton police picked up the quartet here after an alert from Pennsylvania police. All were held on charges of carrying concealed weapons when police found several guns and several rounds of ammunition on them, George said.

TRAIN KILLS TRUCKER

CANONSBURG, March 4 (P)—Peter J. Knish, 28, a West Middletown truck driver was killed here today when his loaded coal truck was struck by a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train.

As of June, 1944, mental disease or deficiency had accounted for three out of every ten rejections of U. S. men for military service in World War II.

BOOST SALES AND GOOD WILL

They are ideal for offices, stores, hospitals, buildings, places of recreation, restaurants, hotels, industry. In industry, they pay their way by reducing production rejections, permitting greater precision work.

snow was too light and the weather too warm for it to settle on the ground.

Not only has every day this month been moist, but Feb. 24-25 was full of precipitation also, leaving only Leap Year Day, Feb. 29, blessed by dryness.

Yesterday's flurries marked the 29th snowfall of the winter, but nothing worse than continued cold, partly cloudy skies and general windiness is predicted for today. Tomorrow, though, more snow is foreseen.

Scanlin Named Head Of Boy Scout Camp

Bert Scanlin, Sixth street and Belmont avenue, has been appointed director of the Boy Scout camp of the Bucks County council, it was announced yesterday.

Neighborhood commissioner of Troop 7 and Stowe Troop 1 and its cub pack, Scanlin became troop leader of the Bucks county camp several years ago through his association with Raymond Hoxworth, former scout executive for the Continental district, now Bucks County executive.

Scanlin, who received his Eagle rank while a member of Troop 5, will assume his duties at Camp Ockanickon, Point Pleasant, on the Delaware river near Doylestown, when the camp opens July 4.

He will be in charge of a staff of 25 who will take care of some 900 scouts who will attend during the six-week season.

Scanlin replaces Melvin Mack, former East Greenville resident, who was forced to resign the post because it conflicted with his new job as supervising principal of a consolidated school in Bucks county.

Officers Installed At Pomona Grange By State Overseer

Montgomery county Pomona Grange No. 8 yesterday reinstated Harold Allebach, of Keystone Grange, Trappe, for his second two-year term as master as the group held its first quarterly session of the year at Sanatoga Grange hall yesterday.

More than 100 members of six-county member Granges attended the all-day affair and listened to varied talks besides seeing the entire bank of officers for the coming two years assigned to their posts.

One of the speakers, Shannon Walker, overseer of State Grange who installed the officers, spoke on education, advocating Federal aid but not Federal control over all education.

Another speaker, Charles Rankin, of Montgomery county Safety council, told the audience that motorists now can be checked for physical defects in Norristown. The examination is part of the driving safety program of the council, he said. He distributed to all grange representatives safety posters which will be placed in individual halls.

EARL BECHTEL, chairman of the agricultural committee and a member of Keystone Grange, described to members the current tussle between milk dealers and dairymen over milk prices. He sided with the farmer, he said, in advocating no price change now.

The afternoon's last speaker was Montgomery county Agent R. G. Walz who cautioned against rash use of and too much faith in new chemical weed killers.

"Remember they are new," he warned, adding that time may produce developments which will make the weed killers more perfect. Care must be exercised where the chemical is spread since its presence in the soil may damage other crops, he pointed out.

The addresses were highlights of the meeting which began at 10:30 a. m. with committee reports. Carl N. Dunmire, of Sanatoga, welcomed the grangers and Mrs. Blanche Allebach, wife of the master, gave the reply.

ANNOUNCEMENT of the Pomona picnic for Aug. 14 in Montgomery county park was made and the meeting recessed for a lunch of meat loaf, peas, pickled cabbage, filling, chow-chow (a relish), apple sauce, ice cream, cake and coffee. Officer installation followed the meal. Walker chose his staff from members of Pomona. They were Ralph Geisler, marshal; Mrs. Florence Landis, emblem bearer; Mrs. Dorothy Geisler, regalia bearer, and Mrs. Mildred Wagner, pianist.

Besides Allebach, those who took their chairs were Clarence B. Wehr, overseer; Mrs. Patricia M. Smale, lecturer; Harold Gottwald, steward; Christian Hunsicker, assistant steward; Herbert B. Wagner, chaplain; Amos Walton, treasurer; Edith Boneman, secretary; Fayette Rapp, Ceres; Mrs. Allebach, Pomona; Mary Weiss, Flora; Ruth Gottshall, lady assistant steward, and Harry Myers, executive committee member.

A list of announcements concluded the meeting. State Grange meeting will be held in Reading in October, the time to be specified later; the annual Sunset service, held in the Summer, will take place at Trappe Lutheran church this year; a spelling contest between representatives of each of the six granges will be held at the June 1 meeting, the winner to compete in State Grange finals; and a quarreading that would let him leave school early without being held back next year.

Mrs. Martin hoped her husband would be able to revisit Greece soon, but at present he is tied up with the Martin luncheonette which he opened on North Charlotte street, near Chestnut street, the past Summer.

THE MARTINS HAVE LIVED in Pottstown 14 years. They like it, too — so much that they are trying to persuade Peter's brother, George, to leave Buffalo, N. Y., and set up business in Pottstown.

But still they want to see Greece again. "It's been her one wish for 10 years," Miss Martin said of her mother's desire.

The chief aim of the Martins' visit is to see her elderly parents. They live on Metilene, an island just off the eastern coast. Mrs. Martin's father, John Coulman, is a retired seaman who sailed to Turkey with shiploads of olive oil.

Mrs. Martin said she wished she could wait until her husband was free to go along, but said she was afraid her parents would die before she saw them again. She last saw them when she was 17 years old.

AN IMPORTANT PART of the elaborate preparations required are the immunity "shots." Eight were required, the first of which were given at the office of Dr. R. K. Glocker, Royersford.

Deciding that long, pointed needles and short, lively boys made a combination unfavorable to his office furniture, Dr. Glocker suggested that the remainder be given at their homes.

This didn't quiet the Alex children much. But dignity was forced upon young Martin when he was told that he was named Rudolph after the doctor.

In returning to Greece, Mrs. Martin not only will be revisiting her parents and childhood friends, to whom she will bring nylons and cosmetics, but also the scene of a complicated courtship.

Martin knew his wife from the time they were children. But she didn't know him. And they had no chance to be together as young people, since there is strict segregation between young men and young women on Metilene.

Let singing contest will be held at the Sept. 2 meeting, the place to be decided at the June meeting.

before the letter was sent and publicized, the evidence obviously will not be in existence now," he said.

Indicating that he thought more would have been accomplished through a private letter to his office, Forrest said he was replying to the association, but that it would be up to them to release the contents of the reply.

THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY repeated his assertion that if local authorities did not end gambling, "I would be obliged to take over the enforcement of the law to its fullest extent."

Replying to the "warning system" charge made by Rosenberry, the district attorney vigorously denied that there was any "leak" in the district attorney's office, the State police or the State Liquor Control board.

"I know," he declared, "that there is no such leak and therefore that person who purports to be giving confidential information to the gamblers is an impostor."

Rosenberry's letter followed a meeting Tuesday night of the officers and directors of the liquor dealers' association, held at Gladwyne.

After Martin had come to America and then fought with the U. S. Army in France in World War I, he decided to encourage her to know him, too. Back to Greece he went from France, "met" the girl he had admired from afar, and married her.

ministration were as sharp as those he sounded against Franklin D. Roosevelt when he ran against the late President in 1944.

"Our national government is torn by bitterness and quarreling," the governor said in his message. "Its profligate waste of the money it has wrung from our people by taxes threatens to bring us to ruinous inflation."

"Our task as Republicans is to restore integrity, competence and purpose to the national government."

Douglas Nichols, a leader of the Pottstown Christian Endeavor society, was re-elected president of the Montgomery County CE union yesterday at the group's monthly meeting held in Norristown.

The other officer elected also was from Pottstown, Mrs. Edward Place, who was re-named as recording secretary.

Most of the meeting was devoted to laying of extensive plans for the group's convention to be held April 9 and 10 in the Lansdale-Schwenkfelder church. Plans for the Labor Day camp session to be held at the University Boys' Camp, Green Lane, also were discussed.

Nichols announced that the Keystone male quartet will sing at the 6:30 o'clock Sunday night service of the Senior CE society of First Baptist church.

The quartet, which has made numerous concert appearances throughout the U. S., will sing Negro spirituals and sacred numbers.

A good second day dish made from left-over roast pork can be made by combining ground left-over pork with chopped apple, bread-crumbs and eggs. Pour mixture in custard cups or muffin tins and bake in a 350 degree F. oven for 40 minutes.

Reds Protest Action Of U. S. Planes on Ships in Far East

LONDON, March 4 (AP) — Russia has filed a second protest against the activities of American airplanes in the Far East, the Moscow radio said tonight.

A broadcast heard in London said the Soviet Union had made a new protest over "continued violations of the freedom of merchant shipping" by U. S. planes off Japan.

It was the fourth Russian protest to the U. S. in the past six weeks concerning American activities in the so-called military field.

Tonight's Moscow broadcast said:

AMERICAN PLANES continue to violate the freedom of merchant shipping. As previously announced, the Soviet foreign ministry sent a note on Jan. 30 to the American embassy in Moscow about repeated violations of the freedom of merchant shipping by American aircraft which have been examining Soviet merchant vessels in the Yellow sea and the Sea of Japan, circling over the ships, passing over them at a low level and even diving down at them.

According to information at hand, the broadcast added, the U. S. government has not yet replied to this note.

"In the meantime," the broadcast continued, "the government has heard about fresh violations of the freedom of merchant shipping by American planes in the Far East. In view of this, the foreign ministry has sent to the American embassy a note again calling the attention of the United States government to the matter and insisting on immediate measures to stop these violations."

IN RECENT WEEKS Russia also has protested the presence of U. S. warships and Marines in Italian waters and the projected reopening of Mellaha airfield at Tripoli, North Africa, for use by American planes.

Plus these protests, a Russian protest to Iran directly concerned the U. S. It charged that the activities of U. S. military advisors to the Iranian government "can create danger."

Russia also has protested jointly to the U. S., Britain and France against the holding of three-power talks on Germany which are expected to end in London this week.

Two Thieves Shot, Third Steals $190

POTTSVILLE, March 5 (AP) — Two men were shot and wounded by State police today as they attempted to rob the office of the Colitz Coal company on the western outskirts of Pottsville.

A third man, who State police said also was shot, escaped with $190. The police identified the two as Joseph Rogers, 45, of Wilkes-Barre, and Harry Turkes, 29, of Wilkes-Barre. Rogers is a patient in Pottsville hospital with a bullet wound in his left side. Turkes was taken to Good Samaritan hospital with a bullet wound in his arm. Both are under guard.

A detail of detectives from the Wyoming barracks of the State police trailed the three men from Wilkes-Barre, today. Police said they followed the trio to the coal company office and managed to station Corp. Frank Evans, head of the Pottsville barracks, on the second floor. Evans signalled when the men walked into the office and the police opened fire. Turkes and the man who escaped were wounded in the office. Rogers, waiting in the getaway car, was shot as he attempted to escape. He finally was cornered about two miles away after a running gun battle.

Temperatures in excess of 140 degrees Fahrenheit cannot be tolerated by the human body for any length of time.

Borough Briefs

Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley of the Second ward will send a summons to James W. Butler, of Philadelphia, on a charge of passing through a red light.

NLRB Upholds Non-Red Affidavits Of Union in Ruling Against Shoe Firm

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP) — The National Labor Relations board refused today to throw out the non-Communist affidavits of a union which charged its lineup of officers.

The board said the legality of the affidavits was something for the Justice department to look into if the question is raised.

The issue was taken to the NLRB by an employer — the Craddock-Terry Shoe corporation of Lynchburg, Va., which challenged the standing of the CIO-Shoe Workers. The union, by referendum in January, voted to change its constitution and do away with its three vice presidencies.

ONE OF THE THREE, Julius Crane of Chicago, had voted against signing a non-Communist affidavit. As long as he remained an officer of the union and would not sign, the shoe workers were barred under the law from using the board's machinery.

The Craddock-Terry company was ordered the past May 29 to bargain with the shoe workers union. Taking note of the constitutional change, the company appealed to the board to change that order. It argued that "this referendum was undertaken with the intent of circumventing" the Taft-Hartley act.

The company said the union was "not in compliance" with the act because the three officers were still performing the same duties, receiving the same pay as before.

THE SHOE WORKERS took their cue from the AFL. The AFL changed its constitution in October because John L. Lewis, one of 13 vice presidents, refused to submit the non-Communist affidavits. To meet that situation, the AFL eliminated the vice presidencies, leaving only President William F. Green and Secretary-Treasurer George Meany as officers.

The NLRB conceded in the Craddock-Terry case that abolishing officers under union constitutions "may frustrate the congressional intent to drive Communists from positions of leadership in the labor movement." It continued:

"As the board reads the statute, however, these considerations cannot properly deter it from processing a case when the statutory requirements have been met. It is not the purpose of the statute to require the board to investigate the authenticity or truth of the affidavits which have been filed. Persons desiring to establish falsification or fraud have recourse to the Department of Justice."

Negroes Lose Suit Against Railway; Claimed Segregation

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—Three Negroes who sued the Southern Railway company because it made them sit in the colored section lost their case today.

The Interstate Commerce commission dismissed a $15,000 damage action against the railway.

Vern Brown, Lillian Falls and Mabel Holcomb said they bought through seats from New York to New Orleans on the deluxe "Southern" and were forced to move to a car reserved for Negroes after the train passed Washington.

They said accommodations were inferior, and caused them to become ill and require medical treatment. Each asked $5,000 damages.

The commission described the train as an "inferior" in the coach service field. It said the Negroes were subjected to prejudice and discrimination in being made to move from reserved seats.

BUT IT ADDED that the substitute accommodations were "not substantially different from those furnished white passengers."

The railroad said the New York clerk violated instructions in seating the three seats in a coach reserved for occupancy by white passengers.

The ICC said laws in most Southern states require racial segregation of travelers, and ruled as it has in previous similar complaints.

"We have concluded that defendant furnishes white and Negro passengers accommodations on the Southern that are substantially equal."

WE CONCLUDE that the maintenance and enforcement by a common carrier by a railroad of a reasonable rule or regulations requiring segregation of white and Negro passengers traveling in interstate commerce is not a violation of the act to administer, provided substantial equality of treatment is afforded both races traveling under like conditions.

The Supreme court has ruled that a State can not pass laws requiring Negroes to sit in certain parts of buses in interstate commerce. It has also ruled that Negroes must be given equal service on dining cars of railroad trains.

15 Surplus Fighters Are Sold to France

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—Fifteen surplus P-51 Army fighter planes have been sold to France.

The State department, announcing this today, said the sale price was $1,746,700 and the planes' original cost $787,335.

The P-51 is a single-engine fighter which figured in American air victories in the later stages of World War II.

Other transfers listed included the sale of 50 demilitarized tank landing ships to China. These were among craft at Suoi bay in the Philippines. The original cost was $30,890,000 and China agreed to pay $1,400,000.

About one-seventh of the American women who marry never have children.

He Just Escaped a Nightmare

It seemed like a bad dream to two-year-old Stephen Leeds, Oakland, Calif.—but it wasn't. There he was asleep in his room when he was awakened by a terrific crash. His crib was suddenly toppling, since two legs had been knocked off. His eyes were still full of wonder about the strange things that happen in the night when a camera-man pictured him beside a gaping hole in his bedroom. It seems that a plane had crashed just 100 yards from his home and the generator became a projectile that ripped through the wall.

Coast Guard Searches For Missing Airplane

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—A small plane, unreported since it was sighted over La Guardia field at 11:30 a. m. yesterday, is still unaccounted for, the Civil Aeronautics administration said tonight.

The Coast Guard said a hunt for it has been confined to a "communications search" because of bad flying weather. A check of airports in New York and surrounding states has produced no information.

The GAA identified the plane by its number as it passed over La Guardia flying northeast. The craft, a cream-and-red Piper Cub, left Richmond, Va., the past Saturday, and is said to be piloted by Herbert I. Fink, flight instructor of Tampa, Fla.

It was reported to have taken off yesterday from Harrisburg for upstate New York.

From 1940 to 1947, the population of Oregon increased by about 425,000 people.

Trio Successful In Preserving Color, Form of Flowers

PATERSON, N. J., March 4 (AP)—Two physicians and their inventor uncle said today that after a 20-year search they had succeeded in preserving the color and form of flowers for an indefinite period.

They said they had preserved some flowers for 19 years and some very good specimens for eight years.

The men, Drs. Sidney and Philip Joffe and Philip Joffe, are keeping their process a secret.

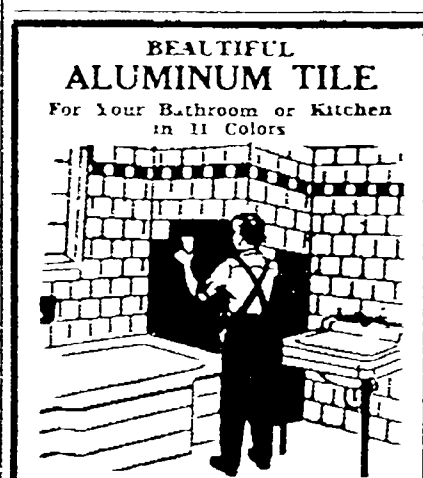

Dr. Sidney Joffe said in an interview they had accomplished the permanent fixing of the cell structure of flowers. The flowers, of course, are not kept alive.

THREE SOLUTIONS are used in the process, he said, adding: "The first causes a sudden dehydration of the flower, fixing its form and stopping bacterial decay from within and without."

The second allows the flower to dry slowly over a period of several days.

The third solution prevents oxidation.

AFTER TREATMENT, the flower is impervious to heat, cold or time. Joffe said, adding that the foliage, stems and petals are kept in a soft and dry form, giving the appearance of a living blossom.

The flower, however, does not feel as supple as a fresh one.

Joffe said the process can be applied to any flower, from daisies and other roadside blossoms up the price scale to fragile orchids.

The experiments began 20 years ago when the elder Joffe inadvertently dropped a rose into a solution he had mixed. He for-

GEN. WEDEMEYER ASKS CHINA AID TO FIGHT REDS

Sides With MacArthur Against Economic Help Alone During Crisis

WASHINGTON, March 4 (P)—The man who wrote the "secret report" on China, Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, said today this country should help in the fight against Chinese Communism.

Wedemeyer, admitting "honest differences" with Secretary of State Marshall, thus lined up with General Douglas MacArthur. Their joint opinion to the House foreign affairs committee:

Economic aid, as proposed by the Truman administration, is not enough.

Wedemeyer told the committee that "we are going to pay in blood" if the spread of Communism is not halted. He said:

"I BELIEVE we should give military aid to all countries and all peoples whose political and economic structures are compatible with our own and who are struggling against totalitarian doctrines."

MacArthur cabled the committee from Tokyo, yesterday that "one major frontier is no less important than another" in resisting "the assaults of political capitalism."

And the general said China, whose government is locked in a civil war with Communist forces, is one of the major frontiers.

There was no official comment from the State department on either general's testimony. Officials appeared to agree, however, with the general idea that economic help to countries fighting Communism should be backed by guns and planes.

But Europe, they say, is the No. 1 battleground—hence the proposed $750,000,000 in military aid to Greece and Turkey but economic aid alone, $750,000,000 worth of it, for China.

4 Tracked Down After Killing Agent

SWAINSBORO, Ga., March 4 (P)—Police gunfire, crackling through a busy street, brought the surrender today of two men and two women in the slaying of an agent of the Georgia bureau of investigation.

Their capture ended a long pursuit in which a home was entered and a car commandeered, an exchange of shots between the desperadoes and police in two meetings and the abduction of two Negro school teachers.

Some 50 state troopers and 75 armed citizens participated in the chase and blocked off all roads while light planes sought the fugitives' trail.

Captain H. B. Henderson of the Georgia highway patrol identified the prisoners as Alfred Edwards, 26; his brother, Spencer; Spencer's wife, Marie, 18, and Evelyn Lax, 16, a cousin of the brothers. All are from Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Highway Patrol Sgt. Bill McDuffie said all would be charged tomorrow with the murder of Garland Field, 35-year-old GBI agent, last night at a roadside inn as he investigated the offer by one of the Edwards to sell a rifle.

Abdication Forced Upon Him, King Mihai Claims

LONDON, March 4 (P)—Young Mihai of Romania declared today his abdication had been forced and he would not be bound by it.

His country, he said, was being ruled by a government "installed and maintained in power by a foreign country."

He made his statement to a group of nearly 100 newspapermen, then boarded a train for Southampton to catch the Queen Elizabeth, which leaves for New York tomorrow.

If his statement was meant as a new claim to the Romanian throne, Mihai did not say so in that many words. He did not mention Soviet Russia by name, but the implications of his statement ranged all the way from hopes for an anti-Communist revolution in his homeland to mere disappointment at loss of his crown.

MIHAI ARRIVED in this safe political exile from Paris in time for lunch with Britain's royal family at Buckingham palace. Then he met the press.

He read this carefully prepared statement, his first on the abdication of Dec. 30:

"At the present moment it is no longer necessary to insist on the circumstances and causes of certain political events."

"The motives of the profound political changes imposed on the small states of eastern Europe are already too well known."

"As far as Romania is concerned, I want to avail myself of the first possibility personally to confirm the facts as they happened."

On the morning of Dec. 30, 1947, Mr. Petru Groza and Gheorghe Brucan, members of the Romanian cabinet, presented to me the text of the act of abdication, urging me to sign it at once. Both of them came to the royal palace after it had been surrounded by armed detachments, informing me that they would hold me responsible for the bloodshed which will follow as a consequence of the instructions already issued by them in case I shall not sign within the time limit.

World Awaits Important Outcome of Italy Vote

ROME, March 4 (P)—The battle was joined today for Italy's elections, April 18. These elections may be Europe's most momentous political event of the next two months.

This was the last day the country's numerous political parties could put up candidates for the republic's first parliament. The makeup of parliament may decide whether Italy falls into the Communist camp.

Somewhere in Europe there may be a line. If Communism steps over that line it may mean a showdown. Czechoslovakia, already drawn into the Communist lineup, proved not to be that line.

Probe Confession

Authorities in Madison, Ind., are investigating alleged confession of Mrs. Mary Turner, 25, wife of a 50-year-old farm worker, that she helped murder an Army lieutenant in Indianapolis more than two years ago. Mrs. Turner said that she, another woman, and a taxicab driver stabbed the officer and robbed him of a large roll of money.

President Attempts To Block Strike At Atomic Plant

KEY WEST, Fla., March 4 (P)—President Truman moved today to head off a possible work stoppage of some 900 atomic plant workers at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The union in the labor-management dispute involved promptly announced in Washington that it would comply with the President's request to stay on the job until March 19.

Mr. Truman sent his request to both the union, an AFL group, and to the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals corporation.

Senator Raps Civil Rights as Political Fraud

WASHINGTON, March 4 (P)—Senator Stennis (D-Miss) said today the current cry for new civil rights laws is "a political fraud," aimed shamelessly at the Negro vote.

In his first Senate speech, Stennis also said that the agitation is part of a plan "to gradually liquidate and totally blot out the great American principles of self-government."

"Instead of afflicting the people with more bureaus and a greatly extended police power," Stennis argued, Congress should start "putting the government back where it belongs—back in the county court houses, back in the hands of the people."

Stennis' speech dealt with President Truman's proposals for anti-lynching, anti-poll tax and fair employment practices legislation. He said leaders of both parties have decreed that "for political reasons these bills must pass."

HE CALLED IT "a brazen effort to capture the vote of the misguided and misled rank and file Negro in the 1948 elections."

Stennis was particularly critical of the fair employment practices bill, outlawing any discrimination in employment. He called it "contrary to my conception of the God-given and constitutionally protected rights of a free citizen."

Senator Maybank (D-SC) told his colleagues that Stennis' was "one of the greatest state rights speeches ever made." Maybank called it "clear, constitutional and masterful."

War for Bases on Moon To Attack Earth Predicted

LONDON, March 4 (P)—A grim war for bases on the moon "from which to launch guided missiles against the earth" may develop within 50 years, says a report published in the journal of the British Interplanetary society.

The interplanetary society members among its members many prominent British scientists noted for work in the fields of propulsion, dynamics, design, biology and astronomy. Its technical director is Lt. P. Saepey. He is assisted by G. V. E. Thompson and J. Humphreys.

The article, written by A. V. Cleaver, chairman of the organization's council, outlined possible development of interplanetary conflict far more terrible than the atomic bomb.

"No doubt it will sound far-fetched to many people now," Cleaver wrote, "but I find it very easy to believe in a future race to establish national bases on the moon, a territory grabbing competition closely analogous to the one already so familiar on earth."

"IF SUCH BASES could include facilities for manufacturing fuel and other products, as eventually they might," he said, "then there could be no better site from which to launch guided missiles against the earth."

Cleaver explained the "fundamental advantage of moon-based projectiles is simply a matter of gravity. The relatively small gravitational pull encountered on the moon will provide a much more favorable ratio of payload to fuel than on earth.

"This means whoever first establishes a working base on the moon will be able to launch infinitely bigger and better missiles than any earth-bound enemy."

Cleaver predicted as "glimmering future" the possibility of man carrying his wars with him into the rest of the solar system, if intelligent life is found there to oppose him.

"In moral principle," he added, "there is no difference between men killing one another by shooting arrows across a stream and by flinging guided missiles from moon to earth."

Cleaver emphasized that it was up to mankind to seek new knowledge and experience to prevent some such war of the spheres becoming reality.

U. S. Presses for Vote On Holy Land Partition

LAKE SUCCESS, March 4 (P)—The United States insisted tonight that the United Nations Security council vote soon on endorsing partition of Palestine.

The first test ballot in the council may come tomorrow.

In the face of almost certain defeat, the United States was said authoritatively to be standing behind its pending resolution. Chief American Delegate Warren R. Austin says a vote for this measure is a vote for partition.

Seventeen Jewish militiamen were killed today when a Hagana road patrol was ambushed and wiped out in Arab territory north of Jerusalem.

Arabs later led British troops to the bodies, which had been stripped of arms and clothing.

The patrol was shot up in a two-hour battle a few miles north of the Kalandiya airport. Known Arab casualties were two wounded. A second Jewish force, estimated at number 25 men, was either driven off or escaped.

North Coventry High To Proclaim King At Leap Year Dance

Some young man is going to be very, very lucky tonight. He is going to come home from the Leap Year dance given by students of North Coventry high school, the king of the ball.

Just who he is no one knows as yet, but all male students are combing their hair twice and smiling their prettiest and many mothers of the teen-agers are in the midst of a pressing orgy. For the crown is to be awarded to the boy who presents the nicest appearance and most lovable personality tonight, with the girls for judges, as he walks across the stage.

At 10-30 o'clock he will be seated upon a beautifully-trimmed throne and proclaimed the king.

The dance is sponsored by the Senior class, and is open to the public. Class officers are: Donald Rothenberger, president; Monroe Ainslie, vice president; Shirley Bear, secretary and Phyllis Dersh, treasurer. Co-treasurer is George Wiley.

Jenny Knauer is chairman of the theme committee, with the following assistants: Virginia Tyson, F. M. Stamehart and Richard Kline.

Those on the Refreshment committee are: Barbara Collins, chairman; Betty Moyer, Robert Koehler and George Wiley.

Monroe Austin is chairman of the act committee, with Carolyn Clouser, Gladys McGowan and Donald Kulp assisting.

Plans for making clothing kits for overseas was the main topic for discussion last night when the members of Girl Scout Troop 5 met in the Young Women's Christian association building under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Land and Miss Ruth Wace.

Other plans made concerned the song fest to be held on Saturday at the YMCA and the "Scout Own" to be presented on March 14 at the YMCA.

Committees for the St. Patrick's Day party planned for March 15 are as follows: Refreshments, Margaret Jenkins and Jane Neiffer; decorations, Elizabeth Miller and Ethel Freese; and entertainment, Helen Yeager, Darlette Shellenberger and Betty Eschbach.

BEATRICE FAIRFAX'S

Advice to the Lovelorn

Peace — or Armed Neutrality?

IT IS perfectly true that, as the old saying goes, "It takes two to make a quarrel." But it is equally true that it takes two to make and keep the peace. A peace worthy of the name, that is, not just an armed truce.

This being so, if a woman comes to the realization that life with her husband is going to be one of those armed truces, and not a thing of peace and happiness, because he won't do his part to make it so, what she does next depends entirely on how much her husband really means to her. If she loves him too much to be able to face life without him, she will choose the armed truce rather than leave him. If she doesn't love him this much, she is likely to decide that it is not worth the effort to go on forever being the one to maintain that truce.

Being in this latter unenviable situation—that is, being the one of the married couple who takes the responsibility of ending all the quarrels—a woman correspondent asks me: "If I would advise her to go on smoothing things over as she has been doing, or leave her husband and put an end to her marriage."

So I answer her question by asking the one I have just suggested: "How much do you actually love your husband?"

Do you love him so much that the thought of life without him is intolerable or can you face quite calmly a future from which he will be missing?

lives would be unbearably empty without their husbands. On the contrary, her letter leads me to believe that she would pick herself up and go on to happier things if she were free to do so.

She tells me that she has a fine chance to go into business and is quite sure she can be self-supporting. The fact that she apparently has some definite plans in mind as to how she would organize this business is further evidence that she could quite easily become interested in a new type of life.

If the constant quarreling she describes were mere buckering, it would be one thing. But the cause of their bitter disagreements is her husband's increasing tendency to find his fun in barrooms and with the people who frequent those places, whereas her tastes in recreation are something entirely different.

The best solution of this impasse that I can see, at this moment, is for this wife to take the opportunity she has to go into business and see what effect such a step would have upon her relationship with her husband. If it wake him up to the possibility of losing her altogether, it might result in changing his habits for the better. If it didn't, she would have made a beginning toward the independently happy life I believe would suit her better than the constant effort to maintain an armed truce.

Remember the gold finger clasps that mother used to wear? They are back for wear with truly camisoles that top the new spring petticoats.

Deadlock Continues In Strike at College

PHILADELPHIA, March 4 (AP)—Representatives of striking Guard college maintenance men met with two members of the board of city trusts and Dr. Merle M. Odgers, president of the college, today but a union spokesman said no progress was made in settlement.

The meeting was arranged by the State mediation service.

Albert M. Greenfield, chairman of the employment committee for the college board, told the union the college operates on a fixed income from investments.

If the college meets union demands for a 25 cent-an-hour increase, Greenfield said, it would have to curtail its enrollment.

In reply to complaint of school board, Royersford school board last night assured the complainants it would take whatever steps are necessary to halt the practice.

Clarence Bertolet and O. C. Winters, whose properties adjoin the grade school building, entered the complaint.

The board finally received a reply from William Irwin, a member of the faculty who has been in the armed forces several years. Feeling to obtain from Irwin a final status on his status, the board had tried to obtain a letter from him until recently.

THIS INFORMATION was delivered to the board so it would know whether to continue carrying him as an employee of the school district. The latest request had asked him to either resign or tell the board of his intentions. The reply from him read last night, dated Feb. 11, 1948, from Wessaden, Germany, advised the board he still was in Germany, expected to remain there all of this year, and he considered himself still a member of the faculty on military leave of absence.

Superintendent Principal John S. Hartman announced that Robert McNelly, boys' physical education teacher, who had relinquished his duties as football coach and basketball coach because of ill health, has been approved by a physician as able to coach basketball this season. The school board also said the Easter vacation would be from March 24 to 30, and advised that Mrs. Marguerite Martin, Phoenixville, has been formally verified as a teacher. The report of the supervising principal.

PERMISSION was voted the third grade to charter a bus to visit Fels Planetarium, Philadelphia, to see the Easter skies soon. Permission also was granted a group of girls who graduated in 1945 to play a Pottstown girls' basketball team in the local gymnasium March 16.

Report of the treasurer showed a balance of $6094.88 in the school fund and $726.52 in the library account. Report of tax receiver Daniel Mowrey listed a balance outstanding of $324.64.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED Mrs. Bertha McCullough, 442 Ridge avenue, Spring City, announced the recent marriage of her daughter, Grace McCullough, to Bernard Potopka, Phoenixville, which took place in Maryland Feb. 14. The couple is living in Philadelphia.

Changes in Chester County Schools Setup Outlined at Spring City Board Meeting

$10,000 Project Planned by Church

Improvements to cost between $8000 and $10,000 will begin April 1 at the basement of Royersford Baptist church, according to report at the church's congregational meeting Wednesday night. The plans call for the entire basement to be refurnished.

Announcement was made the annual conference supper and election of officers will be held Friday, May 14. The Rev. Fred G. Bangs, pastor, conducted the meeting.

A business meeting of the Sunday school preceded the congregational session. A committee was named for the Children's day service, June 2. Tentative plans were laid for the annual Sunday school picnic to be held at Montgomery county park June 26.

A special musical program was arranged for the Sunday school service Sunday morning, which will include piano numbers by Miss Norma Jean Salzer and marimba solo by Miss Doris Knause, both of Pottstown. Joseph P. Foster conducted the Sunday school meeting.

THE BOARD adopted a resolution authorizing the opening of a special account for Spring City as an activity account, in line with a recent State ruling, which provides that all school funds must be handled on the treasurer and be subject to audit by the borough auditors. The board of the treasurer was increased from $5000 to $10,000, the cost of the increase to be paid from the activities account.

The bond of Tax Receiver Norman Mowrey was set at $10,000, the same as the previous year. Report of the tax collector listed outstanding taxes totaling $2661.62.

Due to delay in receipt of the State appropriation the board found it necessary to borrow money for the first time in many years. Officers were empowered to negotiate a loan of $3000.

Bids were opened for supplies from nine firms, but action was deferred for a special meeting, due to the necessity of preparing a budget estimate based on the new valuation.

Spring City school board heard a general outline of a proposed re-organization of the various schools in Chester county, at its March meeting Wednesday night.

Superintendent Principal Harry K. Gellach outlined the details, explaining present plans call for the establishment of 13 districts.

One district, with Spring City as the center, would include East and West Vincent townships and East Coventry township. East Pikeland would be in Phoenixville district.

President Bennett Waggoner suggested the boards of the districts concerned should be invited to attend a joint meeting in Spring City sometime in April to discuss various aspects of the proposed merger. County and state officials will be invited to attend.

THE BOARD adopted a resolution authorizing the opening of a special account for Spring City as an activity account, in line with a recent State ruling, which provides that all school funds must be handled on the treasurer and be subject to audit by the borough auditors. The board of the treasurer was increased from $5000 to $10,000, the cost of the increase to be paid from the activities account.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

Really a Fifth Type

LET'S BEGIN with the four fundamental kinds of hands on which the bidding is opened—1. The sound bid of one in a suit with a fair but more than average high card strength in the entire hand. 2. The powerful bid justifying a game contract for the pair regardless of how weak the partner may be. 3. The hand extremely weak in high card strength but with such a long suit that an original bid of three or more in it could not be punished too badly and 4. The balanced hand about a trick and a half above average to justify a No Trump opening. Now let's add a fifth type—a hand on which a "psychic" bid should be made.

♠ K 6 3
♥ J 7 5 4
♦ 7 2
♣ J 9 6 2

♠ A 9 4
♥ K 8
♦ Q J 10
♣ A Q 7 5

(Dealer: South. East-West vulnerable.)

South West North East
1NT Db Pass Pass

A "psychic bid" in its most extreme form is what South made on this deal. He was so weak, probably unable to take a single trick of the opponents, with two-thirds of the remaining cards, were on mathematical probabilities virtually sure to have a game in their hands at some declaration. His 1-No Trump bid was to mislead and obstruct them from reaching their best contract.

When West doubled this and East passed, South's venture had really borne fruit, if he had stood pat. As it developed, they could take all the tricks setting him seven for a score of 1300 points, much less than they could get by playing the deal at a slam of their own. Even a small slam, vulnerable, would have a value of 1470 with the extra trick, and a grand slam contract would be worth 2220.

South lost his nerve, however, when he found himself doubled in the 1-No Trump. Instead of passing, he redoubled as an S. O. S. to his partner, asking that the latter take him out in his best suit. North missed the cue, however, and passed. So the redoubled score against poor South was 2600 points, more than the opponents' grand slam would have netted.

Ed Dyer Injured at Camp, Musial Inks 1948 Contract

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. March 4 (P)—Manager Eddie Dyer of St. Louis was resting comfortably today after narrowly escaping serious injury when struck in the head by a curved ball in the Cardinals' morning workout at their Spring training camp.

The accident occurred minutes after holdout Stan Musial, the Redbirds' slugging first baseman, came to terms with President Robert W. E. Hannegan.

After he was revived and carried to the clubhouse, Dyer was rushed to the hospital where X-ray pictures showed a fracture of the skull. His condition was described as "good."

Unless unforeseen complications develop, he will be released tomorrow morning. However, he will not resume his duties on the field for several days. Coach Buzz Wares will direct the team in his absence.

This Dyer did not learn until hours later that his efforts to bring about a deal, union between Hannegan and his slugger had been successful. It was Dyer who acted as the intermediary in the salary dispute between the two and brought about the conference.

EDDIE DYER

Musial only 15 minutes to come to terms. No figures were announced but it was learned that the contract called for $31,000 the same sum Musial received the past year.

However, Stan was promised he would be given a "substantial raise" if he had a "good year" in 1948.

Musial who slumped from his league-leading batting figure of .365 in 1946 to .312 a year ago, had been holding out for $26,000.

West Pottsgrove Nine Lacks Strength in Pitching Corp

Coach Bill Goheen will have a lot of baseball talent on hand when he calls for baseball candidates at West Pottsgrove High sometimes this month. Our the Falcon men's team will have his meadows in trying to find pitchers.

Four left-handers will be among the 15 boys expected to report for the first baseball practice, but none of the veterans are pitchers.

Clarence Bartman appears to be the best pitcher in the group at West Pottsgrove, but the sophomore hurler is quite small and may be just used for relief.

The report from the home of the Falcons is that many outfielders and infielders are going to try their hand at pitching this year, and if such is the case Goheen will have a tough time determining which boys will make up his mound staff.

THE LETTERMEN returning for another year of baseball are two outfielders and two infielders Sam DiGrosia, the Falcons regular second baseman.

NEW YORK, March 4 (P)—Durable Gus Lesnevich, the missing link in Billy Fox's knockout string, gives the Philadelphia challenger another shot at his light heavyweight title tomorrow.

Right now it's about 8 to 5 that Billy will fall again in a bout slated to go 15 rounds.

Only once in 51 fights has Fox failed to stop an opponent. That once was Feb. 28, 1947, when he was flattened by Lesnevich in the tenth round of a championship bout.

Events since have not convinced the boxing mob that the 22-year-old kazo artist will do better. Granted he has belted over seven more men, including Jake LaMotta in an eyebrow-raising performance that prompted an investigator but Gus has shown no signs of slipping.

Spartans, Amity Gain Finals Of Spring City Tournament

Striking like lightning early in the first period to build a comfortable lead and coast the rest of the way, Upper Merion and Amity gained berths in the finals of the Spring City Lions Chio tournament last night of turning in impressive victories over Mohnton and Birdsboro on the Spring City High court.

Amity, displaying most of its power in the first seven minutes, jumped into a 17-1 lead over Birdsboro and held its own for the remaining three periods for a 46-28 victory in the first game of the twin-bill.

Upper Merion, closer to Bridgeport in the playoffs for the Section Six title last week, also looked strong in the first period, taking a 34-14 lead and the going Mountain point for point in the last three quarters for a 43-34 win.

AMITY AND THE SPARTANS will meet for the tournament championship Tuesday night at Spring City. Each team has won two games in the tournament to date. Amity, before defeating Birdsboro last night, turned the tables on West Pottsgrove while Upper Merion's first victory came at the expense of Fleetwood.

Birdsboro made a great comeback after Amity had taken a commanding 16-point lead in the first seven minutes. At the end of the first period, Birdsboro made it 17-5 and at halftime Amity's lead was 34-14. Birdsboro continued to climb toward victory in the third period, coming to within five points of Amity.

A 12-point outburst in the final eight minutes clinched the victory for the Amity combine and assured the Berks counties of a spot in the finals.

Mohnton surprised Upper Merion in the second period after the Spartans had taken a 13-4 lead in the first game minutes. The Berks county capers held their own against the Spartans for the remainder of the game, showing as much power as the Spartans in the last three periods.

Vella or the boxing records, Lesnevich is punching better than ever before. The Cliffside Park, N. J., husky was a capable fighter in previous days when he marched to the title with 14 knockouts in 64 bouts. Since his discharge from the Coast Guard, he has stopped five of eight opponents.

It no longer is an easy task for Gus to make the 175-pound limit. He zooms up to 200 between fights and just managed to make it this time with a struggle. Chances are this may be his last bout as a light heavyweight although Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati also wants a crack at his crown.
